

Ayrshire Sportsability Awards

In 2009 we introduced four awards to promote and applaud local achievements in sports for children and young people with a disability in Ayrshire and Arran. The awards will be made at our annual Charity Ball on Saturday 24 April 2010 at the Princess Royal Suite, Ayr Racecourse. To nominate someone for an award please see overleaf.

Ayrshire Sportsability Award Categories

Most Innovative School 2009—This award is made to a school in Ayrshire who has promoted:

- Inclusion for children and young people with disabilities.
- Equality and diversity for pupils.

(Finalists will be one from East, North and South Ayrshire).

Young Athlete of the year Award 2009—This award is for a student (up to age 18) who has displayed one or more of the following qualities in disability sport:

- Dedication
- Effort
- Significant achievements in medals/trophies
- Improvement

Volunteer/Club Award 2009—This award is given to the volunteer who contributes their time, energy and experience to a particular club, sport activity or session in disability sport. This award can be given to a group as well as an individual. The deciding criteria are:

- Increased disability awareness ie providing training courses
- Impact
- Increased activities for young people with a disability

Coach of the Year Award 2009—This award is for a coach who has excelled over the year in delivering sports to children and young people with a disability. It recognizes the skill, experience and devotion that exist in disability sport. The Coach of the Year Award will be decided using the following criteria:

- Qualifications/Experience
- Continual professional development
- Helping others achieve their goals
- Club Achievements

Ayrshire Sportsability Awards

Nomination Form

Name of Nominee _____

Address _____

Telephone _____

Email _____

Organisation/Club (if applicable) _____

Award Category _____

Please attach an A4 sheet and describe in under 300 words why you feel this person should receive this award

Nominated by (if different from above)

Name _____

Organisation/Club (if applicable) _____

Address _____

Telephone Number _____

Email Address _____

Please return before 26 February 2010 to Dianne Campbell, Ayrshire Sportsability, Eglinton House, Ailsa Hospital, Ayr. KA6 6AB. Tel 01292 513637.